

Military Heritage Museum

In conjunction with
Florida Gulf Coast University

Military Mini Lecture Series

The Military Heritage Museum, in conjunction with the Florida Gulf Coast University, is proud to announce our first annual mini lecture series beginning in February, 2018.

Our series begins with Mr. Len Gorman who will speak on the famous Rosenthal photograph and flag raising at Iwo Jima. We continue the series in March with Dr. Kathy Roth who will address the use of dogs in military service. You will have a chance to meet and greet canine soldiers!

Come join us after you visit “Art in April” event at Fishermen’s Village presented by the Visual Art Center! Hear Dr. Ron Suciú speak on Norman Rockwell’s World War II art – Impressions from the Homefront. Lastly, we will close out the season with an exciting discussion on war horses, Teddy Roosevelt’s horse “Rain in the Face” and the Spanish American War.

DON'T MISS THESE GREAT EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS!

February 19th, 1PM

Lecturer: Mr Len Gorman

From Yellow Footprints to Black Sand – Marines and the Iwo Jima Raising

March 21st, 1PM

Lecturer: Dr. Kathy Roth

Canine Soldiers – American War Dogs!

April 14th, 3PM

Lecturer: Dr. Ron Suciú

Norman Rockwell’s WWII – Impressions from the Homefront

May 5th, 3PM

Lecturer: Dr. Ron Suciú

Rain in the Face, Roosevelt and the Rough Riders – Spanish-American War on Horseback!

All lectures will be held in the Military Heritage Museum Conference Room, 2^d Floor, Fishermen’s Village

